

GREATER ATTLEBORO RECOVERY NETWORK

On Wednesday September 27, 2017 the Greater Attleboro Recovery Network (GARN) will be sponsoring a candlelight vigil to remember those from our communities who have lost their battle with addiction and/or mental illness.

The Vigil will take place at 6pm at the Sanctuary of

Murray Unitarian Universalist Church

505 North Main St.

Attleboro, MA

Immediately following this vigil, the public is invited to attend the first ever

“You Are Not Alone” Drop-in Center

This will be located in Fellowship Hall of this Murray Unitarian Universalist Church.

Light refreshments will be served.

The Drop-in Center is collaboration between the Attleboro Police, Norton Police and Mansfield Police Departments, along with Arbor Fuller Hospital and numerous other organizations that provide resources and services for addiction and mental health issues.
